1. Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011

The Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011 (the Act) received Royal Assent on 20 April 2011. It is the first new public records legislation in Scotland since 1937 and came into force on 1 January 2013. Its primary aim is to promote efficient and accountable record keeping by named Scottish public authorities.

The Act has its origins in The Historical Abuse Systemic Review: Residential Schools and Children's Homes in Scotland 1950-1995 (The Shaw Report) published in 2007. The Shaw Report recorded how its investigations were hampered by poor recordkeeping and found that thousands of records had been created, but were then lost due to an inadequate legislative framework and poor records management. Crucially, it demonstrated how former residents of children's homes were denied access to information about their formative years. The Shaw Report demonstrated that management of records in all formats (paper and electronic) is not just a bureaucratic process, but central to good governance and should not be ignored. A follow-up review of public records legislation by the Keeper of the Records of Scotland (the Keeper) found further evidence of poor records management across the public sector. This resulted in the passage of the Act by the Scottish Parliament in March 2011.

The Act requires a named authority to prepare and implement a records management plan (RMP) which must set out proper arrangements for the management of its records. A plan must clearly describe the way the authority cares for the records that it creates, in any format, whilst carrying out its business activities. The RMP must be agreed with the Keeper and regularly reviewed.

2. Progress Update Review (PUR) Mechanism

Under section 5(1) & (2) of the Act the Keeper may only require a review of an authority's agreed RMP to be undertaken not earlier than five years after the date on which the authority's RMP was last agreed. Regardless of whether an authority has successfully achieved its goals identified in its RMP or continues to work towards them, the minimum period of five years before the Keeper can require a review of a RMP does not allow for continuous progress to be captured and recognised.

The success of the Act to date is attributable to a large degree to meaningful communication between the Keeper, the Assessment Team, and named public authorities. Consultation with Key Contacts has highlighted the desirability of a mechanism to facilitate regular, constructive dialogue between stakeholders and the Assessment Team. Many authorities have themselves recognised that such regular communication is necessary to keep their agreed plans up to date following inevitable organisational change. Following meetings between authorities and the Assessment Team, a reporting mechanism through which progress and local initiatives can be acknowledged and reviewed by the Assessment Team was proposed. Key Contacts have expressed the hope that through submission of regular updates, the momentum generated by the Act can continue to be sustained at all levels within authorities.

The PUR self-assessment review mechanism was developed in collaboration with stakeholders and was formally announced in the Keeper's Annual Report published on 12 August 2016. The completion of the PUR process enables authorities to be credited for the progress they are effecting and to receive constructive advice concerning on-going developments. Engaging with this mechanism will not only maintain the spirit of the Act by encouraging senior management to recognise the need for good records management practices, but will also help authorities comply with their statutory obligation under section 5(1)(a) of the Act to keep their RMP under review.

3. Executive Summary

This Report sets out the findings of the Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011 (the Act) Assessment Team's consideration of the Progress Update template submitted for Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board. The outcome of the assessment and relevant feedback can be found under sections 6 – 8.

4. Authority Background

The Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board was established as part of the 1996 reorganisation of local government in terms of The Valuation Joint Boards (Scotland) Order 1995 and is vested with the functions of the valuation authorities of North and South Lanarkshire Councils. With the agreement of the two Councils, the Board also has responsibility for the Electoral Registration function for Lanarkshire. The Board comprises of 16 members who are appointed by the constituent Councils with each Council nominating 8 members.

5. Assessment Process

A PUR submission is evaluated by the Act's Assessment Team. The self-assessment process invites authorities to complete a template and send it to the Assessment Team one year after the date of agreement of its RMP and every year thereafter. The self-assessment template highlights where an authority's plan achieved agreement on an improvement basis and invites updates under those 'Amber' elements. However, it also provides an opportunity for authorities not simply to report on progress against improvements, but to comment on any new initiatives, highlight innovations, or record changes to existing arrangements under those elements that had attracted an initial 'Green' score in their original RMP submission.

The assessment report considers statements made by an authority under the elements of its agreed Plan that included improvement models. It reflects any changes and/or progress made towards achieving full compliance in those areas where agreement under improvement was made in the Keeper's Assessment Report of their RMP. The PUR assessment report also considers statements of further progress made in elements already compliant under the Act.

Engagement with the PUR mechanism for assessment cannot alter the Keeper's Assessment Report of an authority's agreed RMP or any RAG assessment within it. Instead the PUR Final Report records the Assessment Team's evaluation of the submission and its opinion on the progress being made by the authority since agreeing its RMP. The team's assessment provides an informal indication of what marking an authority could expect should it submit a revised RMP to the Keeper under the Act, although such assessment is made without prejudice to the Keeper's right to adopt a different marking at that stage.

4. Business Classification	G	G	G	The Keeper would be interested to hear about the on-going project to scan paper documents into the electronic systems.	The project to scan all non-domestic files has been completed. All records are now held electronically with the exception of those that were incapable of being scanned in, for example large architect's plans.	The Assessment Team thanks you for this update on the completion of the scanning project. That all records (aside from a few exceptions) are now held electronically is a major milestone.	Scanning of those non-domestic documents previously classified as 'oversized' has also been completed.	Thank you for this positive update on the final completion of scanning project. The Assessment Team also trusts that the LVJB Business Classification Scheme is being kept up to date. Update required on any change.
5. Retention Schedule	G	G	G	Update required on any change.	Our Electoral Registration retention schedule in respect of prisoner information received from the Scottish Prison Service was updated in June 2021. 10. Business Continuity and Vital Records	G	G	G	Update required on any change.	LVJB's Business Continuity Plan continues to be updated annually, the last full update being March 2021 with a minor alteration in June 2021 to reflect the relocation of servers. In terms of the impact of Covid-19 on the Business Continuity Plan, the Plan was altered to reflect the effect of the pandemic on LVJB's business planning, particularly in terms of the annual risk register, contained	The Assessment team thanks you for this update on continuing review of business continuity arrangements. It is also reassuring to hear that LVJB set up daily emergency planning meetings in the early days of the pandemic, and has reflected the unusual situation, including home-working, in its updated Plan.	LVJB's Business Continuity Plan continues to be updated annually, the last full update being March 2022. The Business Continuity Plan, 'the Plan' was updated to reflect, changes to senior personnel, number of staff and to reflect the content of the risk register that had been updated in a number of areas.	The Assessment Team is grateful for this update, and happy to hear that the BCP is continuing to be reviewed on an annual basis. This ensures that the Plan is fit for purpose should the need arise. 					within the Plan itself. This reflected the setting up of daily Business Continuity/Emergency Planning meetings between Senior staff, during the early stages of the pandemic, ensuring that clear communication channels were adopted. It also reflected the movement towards the availability to staff of home working.	Opting for a move to an almost wholly digital records management environment following the completion of the scanning project will also have implications on future disaster-preparedness.
11. Audit Trail	A	G	G	The Board recognises that it does not yet have comprehensive procedures in place in relation to audit trails covering all transactions undertaken. There is for example no audit trail in place to monitor the movement and changes to the content of Domestic and Non-Domestic paper property records. As the Scanning Project is in its final stages and all property records will shortly be in an electronic format it was considered this is not necessary. The Keeper asks that be kept up-to-date on the progress of this project.	As noted at Element 4 LVJB's project to scan the non-domestic files has now been completed.	Thank you for this update. The Team I assured that LVJB has considered audit trail arrangements for its records, now kept digitally.	No change.	Update required on any future change.

				The Keeper agrees this element of Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board's Plan under 'improvement model' terms. This means that the authority has identified a gap in provision (paper property records are not sufficiently tracked) and the Keeper acknowledges that the authority has procedures in place to close that gap. His agreement is conditional on his being updated as the scanning project progresses.
12. Competency Framework	A	G	A	The Board acknowledges that the nominated records manager lacks a number of the core competencies required to carry out their role and responsibilities. The Board has notified the Keeper that the records manager will be provided with the required training as part of a personal development programme. The Keeper welcomes this commitment and would like to receive updates on the work being done in this area. The Keeper would also be pleased to have sight of the Board's induction procedures. The Plan also states that the records manager will identify and procure information governance training for appropriate staff. 7. The Public Records (Scotland) Act Assessment Team's Summary

Version

The progress update submission which has been assessed is the one received by the Assessment Team on 20th September 2022. The progress update was submitted by Christine Maxwell, Assistant Assessor & ERO.

The progress update submission makes it clear that it is a submission for Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board.

The Assessment Team has reviewed Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board's Progress Update submission and agrees that the proper record management arrangements outlined by the various elements in the authority's plan continue to be properly considered. The Assessment Team commends this authority's efforts to keep its Records Management Plan under review.

General Comments

Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board continues to take its records management obligations seriously and is working to bring all elements into full compliance.

Section 5(2) of the Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011 provides the Keeper of the Records of Scotland (the Keeper) with authority to revisit an agreed plan only after five years has elapsed since the date of agreement. Section 5(6) allows authorities to revise their agreed plan at any time and resubmit this for the Keeper's agreement. The Act does not require authorities to provide regular updates against progress. The Keeper, however, encourages such updates.

The Keeper cannot change the status of elements formally agreed under a voluntary submission, but he can use such submissions to indicate how he might now regard this status should the authority choose to resubmit its plan under section (5)(6) of the Act.

8. The Public Records (Scotland) Act Assessment Team's Evaluation

Based on the progress update assessment the Assessment Team considers that Lanarkshire Valuation Joint Board continue to take their statutory obligations seriously and are working hard to bring all the elements of their records management arrangements into full compliance with the Act and fulfil the Keeper's expectations.

The Assessment Team recommends authorities consider publishing PUR assessment reports on their websites as an example of continued good practice both within individual authorities and across the sector.
