

Change of Forename(s) and/or Surname(s) for child under 16 years of age

Guidance Notes for Completion of Form 23

In all cases the child's birth must have been registered in Scotland or there must be an entry in Scotland in respect of the child in the Adopted Children Register or the Parental Order Register.

When Can this Application Form be Used?

- a) For forename(s) changes where the child is between 12 months of age and 16 years of age before and no change has already been made using Form 21

AND/OR

- b) For surname(s) changes anytime before the age of 16 years old.

If a change of forename and/or surname is required after age 16, the applicant should complete a Form 24 instead.

Completion of the Form

Note - Any reference to forenames also includes any middle names.

Lines 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 – should be completed as they currently appear on the child's birth certificate.

For a child who is the subject of an Adoption or Parental Order the forename(s) and surname(s) and parental details should reflect the names currently held in the adoption or the parental order register.

Line 3 – For forename(s) changes please print clearly the new forename(s), defining upper, lower case and accented characters.

Line 4 – For surname(s) changes (If applicable) please print clearly the new surname(s), defining upper, lower case and accented characters.

Line 11 - Should only be completed if you had a previous change of name recorded by National Records of Scotland.

Signatures

This form must be signed by a qualified applicant. A qualified applicant means –

- a) where only one parent has parental responsibilities in relation to the child, that parent;
- b) where both parents have such responsibilities, both parents; and
- c) where neither parent has such responsibilities, any other person who has such responsibilities.

A person may be a qualified applicant whether or not they have attained the age of 16 years.

Parents Not Married to/Not in a Civil Partnership with each other

Where the child's birth was registered or re-registered on or after 4 May 2006, where the parents were not married to or not in a civil partnership with each other and the father/parent is shown on the birth entry, any change of name application should be signed by both parents named on the child's birth entry.

If the signature of the father/parent is unobtainable then the application will not proceed unless the mother can provide us with a court order confirming that the father's/parent's parental responsibilities have been completely removed. The mother should also complete a Form PRF (Parental Responsibility Form) and send this and the court order along with the application form.

If the father/parent is not named on the child's birth entry and the parents were not married to or not in a civil partnership with each other then any application will also need to be accompanied by a Form PRF (Parental Responsibility Form) signed by the child's mother.

Parents Married/In a Civil Partnership

Where the parents were married or in a civil partnership both signatures are required on the form unless we are provided with a court order confirming that parental responsibilities have been completely removed from the other parent. The mother should also complete a Form PRF (Parental Responsibility Form) and send this and the court order along with the application form.
