

Notes for completion of the Foreign Dissolution Questionnaire

The information you provide allows National Records of Scotland (NRS) to determine whether a dissolution granted outside the United Kingdom is recognised under the Family Law Act 1986.

If both parties to the marriage or civil partnership have had a previous civil partnership dissolved a questionnaire should be completed separately for each party. Original or official extract copies of dissolution documents should accompany the questionnaire.

Please submit to the registrar your dissolution documents and a translation in to English, if necessary, along with your marriage/civil partnership notice form.

There is no need to complete this questionnaire if your dissolution proceedings took place in an European Economic Area(EEA) Member state (excluding the countries listed in the second bullet point below) on or after 1 March 2001.

Please complete this form if your civil partnership was dissolved:

- in an EEA Member State prior to 1 March 2001
- in Denmark, Switzerland, Iceland, Norway and Lichtenstein. (These countries are not included in the Regulation on jurisdiction and the recognition of judgements in matrimonial matters that came in to effect on 1 March 2001).
- in any other country outside the EEA or the UK
- if your civil partnership was annulled or voided outside the UK

1. Personal details

Please provide the name and address you are using when submitting your marriage/civil partnership notice form.

If you, are currently using a different name, to that shown on your dissolution document, please notify the registrar who will advise you how to proceed.

2. Previous civil partnership

If you have had more than one previous civil partnership you must provide information relating to the most recent dissolution.

3. Nationality

Please provide details of your nationality at the time of dissolution proceedings. If you and your former civil partner had dual or multiple nationality at the time of dissolution please provide all nationalities for both you and your former civil partner.

4. Residence

Your country of residence at the start and completion of proceedings must be provided for both you and your former civil partner. Any period of residency in the UK that took place during the dissolution proceedings must be provided.

5. Form of proceedings

Please tick only one box and complete the answers to the relevant section only.
