

APPLICATION FOR RE-REGISTRATION OF BIRTH OR STILL-BIRTH

(Section 20 of the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages (Scotland) Act 1965)

A person's birth or still-birth registered in Scotland can be re-registered, if -

- (a) the entry in the register of births is affected by any matter concerning parentage contained in the Register of Corrections Etc (ie the entry does not contain the father's details), or
- (b) the entry in the register of births has been so made as to imply that they were found exposed (abandoned), or
- (c) the entry in the register of births has been so made as to imply that their parents were not then married to each other or parties to a civil partnership and their parents have subsequently married or registered their civil partnership.

Those who may apply for re-registration are as follows:-

- (a) if the person whose birth is to be re-registered is under 16 years of age -
by any person (whether or not they themselves have attained the age of sixteen years) having parental responsibilities in relation to that person (eg the mother);
- (b) if the person is 16 years of age or over they must apply on their own behalf;
- (c) in the case of a re-registration, where the person who is the subject of the birth entry has died, or was a still-born child, application may be made -
 - i) if the person's mother is married, by the mother or her husband if he is the natural father;
 - ii) if the person's mother is not married, by the mother, or
 - iii) if the mother is dead, by a person who has been registered as the father/parent of the child in the birth entry concerned, unless the mother, father/parent or person had been deprived of parental responsibilities prior to the death of the person who is the subject of the birth entry.
