

How to order a certificate (also known as an official extract)

1 Order Online

You can search for and order birth, death, marriage, divorce, civil partnership and dissolution of civil partnership, census and old parish register certificates online for £12 per certificate at www.scotlandsppeople.gov.uk. You will need a credit or debit card to use this service

2 Information you need to order a certificate

Event Type		Information Needed
Statutory – Birth, Marriage, Death, Civil Partnership, Divorce, Dissolution		Full name of the person(s) whose certificate you require. Date and place the event took place. Names of parents (including mother's maiden name) for common surnames.
Census		Year Full name and address of the person
Old Parish Register	Birth/Baptism	Full name, date or year, parent's names, place of birth.
	Marriage/Banns	Full name of both parties, year and place of marriage.
	Death/Burial	Full name, date or year of death, place of death.

3 Order by post

You can order by post. You can download and print out the relevant application form from the NRS website.

- SU3 application form – birth, adoption, marriage, civil partnership, divorce, death, dissolution, or old parish register certificates.
- SU9 application form – census certificate
- SU19 application form – certificate(s)/no trace divorce letter

4 No trace divorce record

Although not an official certificate, we issue a formal letter in support of a divorce application through the Courts as evidence of an individual's marital status within Scotland. This letter has to cover the period from the date of marriage to the present date. Both parties' names, date and place of marriage must be provided. You can apply in person at New Register House, by post, or form SU19. The cost is £5.00 for each five year period searched from the date of marriage.

Method of Request	Cost (excluding postage)	Target From date of order	No trace charge for each five years (or part thereof)
