2.2 The following other additions have been added to the GROS website:

- 2.2.1 In June we published the agenda and papers from the previous PAMS meeting, held on 17 May 2010. The minutes were added early in July.
- 2.2.2 In June the agenda, papers and minutes from the Census Steering Group meeting held on 21 January 2010 were added to the website, with the papers from the meeting held on 13 April 2010 being published in July.
- 2.2.3 The specimen 2011 Census Household Questionnaire was also added to the website in July.
- 2.2.4 On 27 July 2010 metadata templates, which give additional information about each of our main publications, were added to the website. These appear alongside each of the publications, under the 'About this publication' section.
- 2.2.5 New versions of our council area factsheets were added to the website at the beginning of August. They now contain tables, charts and text on a range of demographic topics, such as population, life expectancy, birth, deaths, marriages, and households.
- 2.2.6 In August we published the agenda, papers and minutes from the last Household Analysis Review Group \(HARG\) meeting, which was held on 19 March 2010.
- 2.2.7 We have created an 'About Our Statistics' section of the website, which gathers together background information on the statistics we produce and the policies and practices used to produce them. Note: This section of the website will not go live until some time on Monday 11 October.

3. Future work

- 3.1 The revamp of the statistics area of the GROS website is still ongoing. The 'About Our Statistics' section has just gone live. The next stage will be to create a section on 'Statistics By Theme'. This section will group together data, publications and background information on each of the main demography topics. We welcome users comments and suggestions on all aspects of the website revamp.
