

Deaths have fallen for 3 consecutive weeks

As of 14th February 2021, 9,053 deaths have been registered which mentioned COVID-19. The highest number were registered in week 17 (20th to 26th April). Since the recent high point of 452 in week 3 (18th to 24th January) deaths have fallen for 3 consecutive weeks.

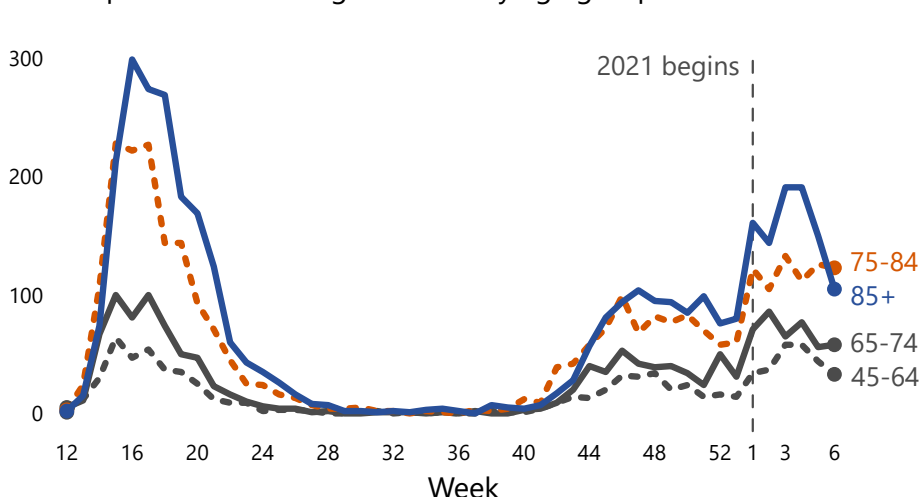

Deaths per week involving Covid-19

Deaths among those aged 85+ fall by 45%

The largest fall in deaths over the last 3 weeks has occurred among those aged 85+. There are now fewer deaths in this age group than in the 75-84 age group for the first time since mid-November.

Deaths per week involving Covid-19 by age group

Care home deaths fall by 62%

In the latest 3 week period, there has been a 62% reduction in care home deaths, taking deaths to a level last seen in October. Over the same 3 week period deaths in hospitals fell by 11% and at home or non-institutional settings by 57%.

Deaths per week involving Covid-19 by location

