

As of 21st June, 4,119 deaths had been registered which mentioned COVID-19

The highest number of COVID-19 deaths were registered in week 17 (20th to 26th April). Deaths have decreased weekly since then to reach a level of 49 in week 25 (15th to 21th June).

Deaths per week involving Covid-19

Most excess deaths have occurred among the older population

Between weeks 12 and 25 (16th March to 21st June) the 85+ age group had 2,131 more deaths than average (44%), and the 75 - 84 age group 1,629 (37%).

In the same period, the 65 - 74 age group had 629 more deaths than average (22%), and the 45 - 64 group 450 (21%).

Deaths are now close to average levels for most age groups.

Excess deaths by age

- 2020 deaths (all causes)
- Minimum / maximum deaths per week over last five years
- Average deaths per corresponding week over previous 5 years

