

Deaths involving coronavirus (COVID-19) up to 2nd August 2020 Summary

As of 2nd August, 4,208 deaths had been registered which mentioned COVID-19

The highest number of COVID-19 deaths were registered in week 17 (20th to 26th April).

Deaths per week involving COVID-19

Most excess deaths have occurred in care homes

Between weeks 12 and 31 (16th March to 2nd August) there were 2,349 (49%) more deaths in care homes than average. COVID-19 was the underlying cause in 1,875 (80%) of these excess deaths.

In the same period, there were 2,925 excess deaths which took place at home or in a non-institutional setting (51% above average). COVID-19 was the underlying cause in 241 (8%) of these excess deaths.

After peaking in week 15, hospital deaths fell below average levels in week 19 and are now 397 (4%) below average levels for the full period.

2020 deaths by location

