

As of 11th October, 4,301 deaths had been registered which mentioned COVID-19

The highest number of COVID-19 deaths were registered in week 17 (20th to 26th April). Deaths have decreased since then but have increased slightly in the last two weeks to reach a level of 25 in week 41 (5th to 11th October).

Deaths per week involving COVID-19

Deaths at home still above average levels

Between weeks 12 and 41 (16th March to 11th October) there were 2,184 (31%) more deaths in care homes than average. COVID-19 was the underlying cause in 1,898 (87%) of these excess deaths.

In the same period, there were 3,768 excess deaths which took place at home or in a non-institutional setting (44% above average). COVID-19 was the underlying cause in 243 (6%) of these excess deaths.

After peaking in week 15, hospital deaths fell below average levels in week 19 and are now 959 (6%) below average levels for the full period.

2020 deaths by location

