

About this publication	Description
Publication title	Demographic and census profiles of European Economic Area (EEA) born residents in Scotland
Description	Profiles for each council area detailing the number of EEA-born people living in each area, their age profile and labour market characteristics, as well as levels of migration and population projections. Profiles for each category of the SG 8-fold urban rural classification 2013-14 detailing the number of EEA-born people living in each area category, their age profile and labour market characteristics.
Theme	Population and Migration; Census
Topic	Demographic and census profiles
Format	Adobe Acrobat Portable Document Format (PDF)
Data Sources	Number of EEA-born residents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Table AT 577 2011 and Table CT 0189a 2011 within the Migration topic in Scotland's Census 2011 website Age profile of EEA-born residents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Table AT 577 2011 and Table CT 0189a 2011 within the Migration topic in Scotland's Census 2011 website Migration trends: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Local area migration tables, and mid-year estimates for each year. Population projections: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Projected components of population change for Scotland are available on the NRS website and on request from NRS for council areas. Changing age structure: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Population projections by council area Nationalities of National Insurance Number (NINo) allocations to overseas nationals in 2015: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) website Economic activity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Table AT 578 2011 and Table CT 0189c 2011 within the Migration topic in Scotland's Census 2011 website Industry of employment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Table CT 0177 2011 and Table CT 0189b 2011 within the Migration topic of Scotland's Census 2011 website

	National Statistics Socio-economic classification (NS-SeC) and education <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Table AT 579 2011 and Table CT_0189d_2011 within the Migration topic in Scotland's Census 2011 website
Date that data is acquired	See main publications referenced in each individual section (links to sources above)
Publication Release date	27 April 2017 (council area profiles) 1 September (urban rural category profiles)
Frequency	Adhoc
Timeframe of data and timeliness	Census Data: 2011 Migration trends: 2003-2016 Population projections: 2014-2039
Continuity of data	Mid-year population estimates at council level are available from 1981. Population projections are available at council level going back to 1994 Census records are available back to 1841
Revisions statement	Revisions and corrections to previously published statistics are dealt with in accordance with the Scottish Government Statistician Group corporate policy statement on revisions and corrections - a copy of which is available on the Scottish Government website.
Concepts and definitions	Notes and definitions can be found within the main publications referenced in each section.
Relevance and key uses of the statistics	These statistics are published to improve the evidence base on the role of EEA migrants in council areas. The population projections do not take into account policy changes such as the UK's decision to leave the EU, however, these profiles may be of use for assessing the potential impacts of policy change.
Accuracy	Details on accuracy of data for 2011 Census data can be found within the Supporting Information section of the 2011 Census website. Details on the accuracy of the other data sources can be found in the main publication referenced in each section (see links in Data Sources above).
Completeness	Details on completeness of data for 2011 Census data can be found within the Supporting Information section of the 2011 Census website. Details on the completeness of the other data sources can be found in the main publication referenced in each section (see links in Data Sources above).
Comparability	Details on comparability of data for 2011 Census data can be found within the Supporting Information section of the 2011 Census website.

	Details on the comparability of other data sources can be found in the main publication referenced in each section (see links in Data Sources above).
Accessibility	It is the policy of the National Records of Scotland to make its website and products accessible according to published guidelines. More information is available in the Accessibility section of the NRS website.
Coherence and clarity	More information can be found in the main publications referenced in each section (see links in Data Sources) and within the Supporting Information section of the 2011 Census website.
Value type and unit of measure	See main publications referenced in each individual section of the profiles.
Official Statistics designation	Official Statistics
UK Statistics Authority Assessment	N/A
Help email	statisticscustomerservices@nrscotland.gov.uk There is also a contact form on the NRS website.
Date this form was published	