1 Data zone figures are not available on second homes for Clackmannanshire, East Renfrewshire and Renfrewshire. These data zones have been removed from calculations of second homes for each urban-rural classification. The Scotland figure includes totals for these three local authority areas, from Table 9, to be in line with other Scotland-level statistics quoted in the publication.

2 Data zone figures are not available on occupied dwellings, vacant dwellings and dwellings with 'occupied exemptions' in East Renfrewshire. These data zones have been removed from calculations for each urban-rural classification. The Scotland figure includes the East Renfrewshire total, from Table 9, to be in line with other Scotland-level statistics quoted in the publication.

The Sources, Methods and Definitions section of the main publication contains definitions of each of the household characteristics listed in the table. It also contains information on the Scottish Government's Urban-rural classification.
