

preserving the past; recording the present; informing the future

SCOTLAND'S PEOPLE & PLACES-A JOURNEY FROM OUR PAST TO OUR FUTURE

Thursday 28th November 2013

9:30 am to 15:15 pm

The Scottish Government, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh

09:30 – 10:00	Registration and coffee
10:00 – 10:10	Introduction	National Records of Scotland (NRS)
10:10 – 10:25	“Very near the truth”: a lightning walk through the history of the census in Scotland	Ian White Office for National Statistics (ONS)
10:25 – 11:40	Setting the Scene: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 2011 Census results</li> <li>• Trends in Vital Events</li> <li>• Rebasing the Mid-Year Population Estimates</li> <li>• Household Projections</li> <li>• Beyond 2011 - The Future of Census Statistics</li> </ul>	Head of Census Statistics Head of Vital Events Head of Population & Migration Statistics Head of Household Estimates & Projections Head of Data Access & Communications
11:40 – 11:55	2012-based National Population Projections	Statistician, NRS
11:55 – 12:10	Understanding Mid Year Estimates in light of the England & Wales Census	Steve Smallwood ONS
12:10 - 13:00	Lunch &amp; poster session
13:00 – 13:15	Presentation – Who is my neighbour	Dr Fiona Tweedie Church of Scotland
13:15 – 13:45	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Findings from the Quality assurance of Census 2011</li> <li>• The New European Standard Population.</li> <li>• Beyond 2011 - Privacy, Small area estimates</li> </ul>	Statistician, NRS  Head of Vital Events  Head of Data Access & Communications
13:45 – 14:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Census Statistical Disclosure Control methodology - the use of record-swapping to protect data confidentiality</li> <li>• Migration estimates methodology</li> <li>• Beyond 2011 - Equality and internet capture</li> </ul>	Statistician, NRS  Statistician, NRS Head of Data Access & Communications
14:15 – 14:30	Tea &amp; Coffee break
14:30 – 14:45 14:45 -15:00	Data Sharing & Linkage Service and Administrative Data Research Centre	Chris Dibben St Andrews University
15:00 – 15:15	Future NRS publications and events and Wrap Up & Close	NRS