ScotStat Register - Introduction

The ScotStat Register was set up to allow the Scottish Government to consult data users and data providers about its statistical products and services, and allow users/providers to provide feedback and seek advice about these.

By signing up to the register you will receive notification of statistics releases for those areas which you express an interest in and, from time to time, you may be contacted about wider developments/events relating to Scottish Government statistics. Where consent is given, the register may also be used to contact other registered users about statistical issues that you may be interested in consulting others about.

New users: To subscribe, simply click on the link to the left and provide your contact details. You will automatically be logged in after registering, thereafter please identify the subject areas which are of interest to you.

Forgotten your username or password? Tick the forgotten password box on the left of this page, enter your username or e-mail address and then click log in. Your details will be e-mailed to you.

The personal data you provide to us will be processed by the Scottish Government in line with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998. Your data will be used solely for the purposes of allowing the Scottish Government to contact you regarding the latest statistics publications and developments. We will not share this data with third parties except where you have given us your permission to do so. Where you agree to share your details these may only be accessed by other people registered on ScotStat who may wish to contact other ScotStat members regarding statistical issues which you may have a common interest in. Only your name, e-mail address, type of organisation you registered under and areas of interest will be shared.

Please note that if at any time we are unable to contact you using the details that you have supplied, because for example, your e-mail address that you have supplied is no longer valid, we may remove you details from the ScotStat register. By subscribing to the Register, you agree that we may do so.

ScotStat Register- My Interests

My areas of interest

Below is a list of the topic areas covered by Scottish official statistics. Please indicate your area(s) of interest by ticking the appropriate boxes. You may declare an interest in as many topics as you wish. Some topic areas have sub-topics. To display these click the + symbol. You can register interest in any number of these by ticking individual sub-topics or you can choose all sub-topics by ticking the main topic box.

Once you have indicated your areas of interest, please click the save button. You may, of course, amend your areas of interest at any point using the facility described above.

Note: Subject headings are displayed in bold when selected or partially selected.
